

Example Speech Outline

- I. Introduction: (here you type out the opening for your speech. Start out with an attention grabber: shocking statistic, interesting fact, or quotation. Be sure to introduce the main topics that you will be covering in your speech.)

- II. Body
 - a. Main Topic #1: _____
 - i. Supporting fact or detail _____
 - ii. Supporting fact or detail _____
 - iii. Supporting fact or detail _____
 - b. Main Topic #2: _____
 - i. Supporting fact or detail _____
 - ii. Supporting fact or detail _____
 - iii. Supporting fact or detail _____
 - c. Main Topic #3 _____
 - i. Supporting fact or detail _____
 - ii. Supporting fact or detail _____
 - iii. Supporting fact or detail _____
 - d. Main Topic #4 _____
 - i. Supporting fact or detail _____
 - ii. Supporting fact or detail _____
 - iii. Supporting fact or detail _____
 - e. Main Topic #5 _____
 - i. Supporting fact or detail _____
 - ii. Supporting fact or detail _____
 - iii. Supporting fact or detail _____

- III. Conclusion: (here you type out a summary of your main topics and any other interesting facts that you found along the way. Close with what you enjoyed learning about or what you liked about the research project)